Louis Henri has chosen maple wood for two new hand crafted furniture designs: straight grain in a champagne finish for a practical living room cabinet, birds eye for a table with his characteristic funky appeal.

Living room cabinet to house television, generous space for books, photographs, decorative objects. Practical solution for a multi-functional sitting room, for entertaining, watching and reading.

Louis Henri often designs furniture with a mischievous, quirky appeal. New 'Fractured Table' has eight sides, five legs, leather lined drawers. It is accompanied by its 'fractured rug' in shades of grey, also available in an edition of four.

From current collection include 'Caped wing chair' dramatic flourish for a classic shape, worthy of a James Bond villain.
