CARL LAUBIN'S BEFREUNGSCHALLE

GOING SOLO

Battersea's new gallery exhibits an esteemed architectural painter

Carl Laubin's solo show is coming to the new Plus One Gallery at Battersea Reach from 23 November-10 December. Recognised as one of the finest architectural painters of all time, Laubin is best known for his 'capricci' – architectural fantasy paintings combining buildings and ruins with elements of fiction. Commissioned by such institutions as the Pompidou Centre, Castle Howard, the Duchy of Cornwall and the National Trust, this special exhibition of his work is not to be missed.
