Everybody's talking about

Nelson Mandela at 95
Belgravia Gallery, London

Why is everybody talking about it?
This show celebrates Nelson Mandela's 95th birthday with some of his signed lithographs. The gallery run by Laura Walford and her mother, Anna Hunter, also has exclusive rights to sell signed lithographs by the Prince of Wales.

Is it worth the hype? Yes, the lithographs give an intimate glimpse into his life including drawings of the courtyard that his cell looked on to.

Watch out for: An imprint of his hand.
